

JAY MCGOWAN SHORT BIO

What do you get when potential is introduced to unparalleled imagination?
You have a force to be reckoned with and Jay McGowan aka
“The EnterTrainer” is that inevitable force.

Jacksonville, Florida is where all of Jay’s forward-thinking began. Understanding at an early age that talent is a gift and knowledge is pursued, Jay’s sweat equity and fingerprints are all over our audio history pinging from the early 90s. Jay performed, wrote and produced multiple Top 10 hits that reached multi-platinum status. (i.e., Whoot There It Is, Tootsee Roll, Space Jam and Come on and Ride the Train).

Jay has performed live for millions of fans across the globe including performances at the Worlds Series and the NBA All Star Game. His Television appearances include performing on The Oprah Winfrey Show, Arsenal Hall, MTV and a host of others.

With music firmly under his belt, Jay entered Corporate America where he lead innovation, change management and sales revenue growth.

And now he’s bringing the two worlds together. His Keynotes and Trainings incorporates a DJ, live music and in your face visuals that has attendee’s across the country in awe and wanting more! They say unrivaled energy with the ability to reach ignites innovation and Jay The EnterTrainer is the next wave; so surfs up!

Get Ready to be Enter-Trained!

